

They are waiting on the shingle -
 will you come and join the dance?
 Will you, won't you, will you, won't
 you, will you join the dance?
 Will you, won't you, will you, won't
 you, won't you join the dance?"

"You can really have no notion
 how delightful it will be
 When they take us up and throw us,
 with the lobsters, out to sea!"
 But the snail replied "Too far, too far!",
 and gave a look askance -
 Said he thanked the whiting kindly,
 but he would not join the dance.
 Would not, could not, would not,
 could not, would not join the dance.
 Would not, could not, would not,
 could not, could not join the dance.

"What matters it how far we go?"
 his scaly friend replied.
 "There is another shore, you know,
 upon the other side.
 The further off from England
 the nearer is to France -
 Then turn not pale, beloved snail,
 but come and join the dance.
 Will you, won't you, will you, won't
 you, will you join the dance?
 Will you, won't you, will you, won't
 you, won't you join the dance?"

"Thank you, it's a very interesting dance to watch," said Alice, feeling very glad that it was over at last: "and I do so like that curious song about the whiting!"

"Oh, as to the whiting," said the Mock Turtle, "they—you've seen them, of course?"

"Yes," said Alice, "I've often seen them at dinn——" she checked herself hastily.

"I don't know where Dinn may be," said the
